

The MindWolves Creed

In daily spiritual battles, there is a special breed of athlete ready to answer God's call. An ordinary human with an extraordinary desire to do God's will. Forged by adversity, they stand alongside Jesus' finest disciples to serve the Holy Spirit and usher in God's Kingdom on earth. I am that athlete.

My Tetrahedron is a symbol of honor and heritage. It embodies the trust of those I have sworn to mentor and influence in God's name. By "wearing" the Tetrahedron I accept the responsibility of my calling. It is a privilege that I must earn every day. My loyalty to God, Country, and Team is beyond reproach. I humbly serve as a guardian to my neighbors always ready to defend those who are unable to defend themselves. I do not advertise the nature of my work, nor seek recognition for my actions. I do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility, I value others above myself. The ability to control my emotions and my actions, regardless of circumstance, sets me apart from other humans. Uncompromising integrity is my standard. My character and honor are steadfast. My word is my bond.

Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.
Romans 12:2

I will lead and be led with humble obedience. Instead of seeking my own way, I will seek God's way. I will serve God by serving others. I will love others genuinely and consider them better than myself.

I will prayerfully take charge, lead my teammates and accomplish my call. I lead by example in all situations. I will never quit. I persevere and thrive on adversity. I will be mentally stronger than my enemies. If knocked down, I will get back up, every time. I will draw on every remaining ounce of strength. I am never out of the fight.

The MindWolves pack demands discipline. We expect innovation. Lives are at stake and depend on us – our technical skill, tactical proficiency, and attention to detail. Our training is never complete. We train for spiritual warfare and fight in God's name and for God's glory. We stand ready to bring the full spectrum of God's power to bear in order to achieve our calling. The execution of our duties will be swift when required yet guided by these very principles that we serve to defend.

We will not boast in our wisdom, we will not boast in our might, we will not boast in our riches, but we will boast in this, that we understand and know God, and that He is the Lord who practices steadfast love, justice, and righteousness on earth.

In God's name, we will not fail.
